Pornified Pamela Paul 2007-04-01

"Strips porn of its culture-war claptrap . . . Pornified may stand as a Kinsey Report for our time."—San Francisco Chronicle Porn in America is everywhere—not just in cybersex and Playboy but in popular video games, advice columns, and reality television shows, and on the bestseller lists. Even more striking, as porn has become affordable, accessible, and anonymous, it has become increasingly acceptable—and a big part of the personal lives of many men and women. In this controversial and critically acclaimed book, Pamela Paul argues that as porn becomes more pervasive, it is destroying our marriages and families as well as distorting our children's ideas of sex and sexuality. Based on more than one hundred interviews and a nationally representative poll, Pornified exposes how porn has infiltrated our lives, from the wife agonizing over the late-night hours her husband spends on porn Web sites to the parents stunned to learn their twelve-year-old son has seen a hardcore porn film. Pornified is an insightful, shocking, and important investigation into the costs and consequences of pornography for our families and our culture.

Murder in the Garden Scott Morrison 2006 Presenting 15 famous cases from Fresno, California, set in the first part of the 20th century, a long-time detective in the sheriff's office introduces key figures such as a bootlegger, an unfortunate local dubbed Alligator Jack, and a perpetrator known as the Fig Garden Fiend. Featuring local landmarks such as Mussel Slough—the setting for Frank Norris's The Octopus—and offering additional commentary that compares these sensational past cases to current high-profile criminal cases. A consideration of the changing face of crime, this history reveals a modern upswing in child abuse, multiple murders, and kidnapping cases and highlights the extended nature of the current legal process as compared to the open-and-shut character of the early 1900s.

Military Inc. dares to illuminate the military as an oppressive holding company possessing not just security-related businesses, but also hotels, shopping malls, insurance companies, banks, farms and even an airline. The result is a deeply undemocratic society, where money is funnelled towards the military's economic enterprises, leaving those in need of it impoverished and effectively disenfranchised. With an empirical richness, and a view to Pakistan's recent history, Ayesha Siddiqa offers a detailed and powerful case study of a global phenomenon: corruption, hollow economic growth and elitism. This new edition includes a chapter on the recent developments of the military's foray into the media, and a new preface.

Iron Ores, Salt and Sandstones (Classic Reprint) George Perry Grimsley 2018-10-04 Excerpt from Iron Ores, Salt and Sandstones As in volume III, so in the present volume, a group of mineral resources 18 described which at the present time shows a small development; but gives promise of valuable future additions to the wealth of the state. The future of the iron ore supply is now attracting market attention on the part of the iron and steel companies. The time is not far distant when the great Lake Superior district cannot supply the demand and new fields must be opened. It is one of the objects of this report to show that West Virginia offers a promising field for this development and to draw the attention of these companies to this district. Crossed Swords Shuja Nawaz 2008 Based on 30 years of research and analysis, this definitive book is a profound, multi-layered, and historical analysis of the nature and role of the Pakistan army in the country's polity as well as its turbulent relationship with the United States. Shuja Nawaz examines the army and Pakistan in both peace and war. Using many hitherto unpublished materials from the archives of the United States, the United Kingdom, and the General

Headquarters of the Pakistan Army, as well as interviews with key military and political figures in Pakistan and the United States, he sheds light not only on the Pakistan Army and its US connections but also on Pakistan as a key Muslim country in one of the world's toughest neighborhoods. In doing so, he lays bare key facts about Pakistan's numerous wars with India and its many rounds of political musical chairs, as well as the Kargil conflict of 1999. He then draws lessons from this history that may help Pakistan end its wars within and create a stabler political entity.

The Feeling of Life Itself Christof Koch 2020-09-08 An argument that consciousness, more widespread than previously assumed, is the feeling of being alive, not a type of computation or a clever hack. In The Feeling of Life Itself, Christof Koch offers a straightforward definition of consciousness as any subjective experience, from the most mundane to the most exalted—the feeling of being alive. Psychologists study which cognitive operations underpin a given conscious perception. Neuroscientists track the neural correlates of consciousness in the brain, the organ of the mind. But why the brain and not, say, the liver? How can the brain, three pounds of highly excitable matter, a piece of furniture in the universe, subject to the same laws of physics as any other piece, give rise to subjective experience? Koch argues that what is needed to answer these questions is a quantitative theory that starts with experience and proceeds to the brain. In The Feeling of Life Itself, Koch outlines such a theory, based on integrated information. Koch describes how the theory explains many facts about the neurology of consciousness and how it has been used to build a clinically useful consciousness meter. The theory predicts that many, and perhaps all, animals experience the sights and sounds of life; consciousness is much more widespread than conventionally assumed. Contrary to received wisdom, however, Koch argues that programmable computers will not have consciousness. Even a perfect software model of the brain is not conscious. Its simulation is fake consciousness. Consciousness is not a special type of computation—it is not a clever hack. Consciousness is about being.

Optimasi perencanaan produksi pada kombinasi produk dengan metode linear programming

Didi Pianda 2018-04-16 Naskah buku ini terbagi beberapa bagian, antara lain; bagian pertama pendahuluan, yang berisikan latar belakang masalah menghantarkan pembaca dalam mengaplikasikan program linear programming. Penulis mengambil kasus pada PT. Ima Mountaz Sejahtera Lhokseumawe, adalah suatu perusahaan yang bergerak dalam industri pengolahan air minum dalam kemasan (AMDK) bermerk MOUNT AQUA dalam kemasan yaitu kemasan 250 ml, kemasan 600 ml, kemasan 1500 ml dan kemasan Gallon (19 liter). Dalam suatu industri adanya kondisi dimana keterbatasan faktor-faktor produksi seperti, bahan baku, tenaga kerja, mesin, modal dan jumlah permintaan mengakibatkan munculnya permasalahan dalam kombinasi produk. Agar mencapai laba yang maksimum maka perusahaan harus menentukan secara tepat jumlah masing-masing jenis produk yang akan dihasilkan, karena setiap jenis produk memerlukan biaya produksi yang berbeda-beda dan akan memberikan keuntungan yang berbeda-beda pula. Untuk menentukan kombinasi produk tersebut akan digunakan metode linear programming. Tingkat permintaan pasar ditentukan dengan melakukan peramalan menggunakan data penjualan produk tahun-tahun sebelumnya. Peramalan dilakukan dengan Software Quantitative System (S-QS) untuk hasil yang lebih cepat, akurat dan teliti. Bagian kedua landasan teori, dimana pada bab ini menjelaskan teori-teori yang diuraikan sebagai referensi dalam penelitian antara lain; perencanaan produksi, peramalan (forecasting), biaya pabrikasi, analisa marginal income, dan linear programming. Bagian ketiga metodologi & pengumpulan data, dimana penelitian yang digunakan adalah penelitian kuantitatif dengan pendekatan model permasalahan diformulasikan dalam bentuk matematis linear programming, dengan menentukan variabel keputusan, penentuan dan perumusan fungsi tujuan dan penentuan fungsi pembatas. Data-data diperoleh dengan melakukan observasi, wawancara, studi dokumentasi, dan studi pustaka. Bagian keempat pengolahan data & hasil penelitian. Pengolahan dan analisis data ini menggunakan analisis deskripsi yang bertujuan untuk memberikan solusi yang optimal dari jumlah produksi dan keuntungan (total marginal income).

XXXXX Martin Howse 2006
xxxxx proposes a radical, new space for artistic exploration, with essential contributions from a diverse range of artists, theorists, and scientists. Combining intense background material, code listings, screenshots, new translation, [the] xxxxx [reader] functions as both guide and manifesto for a thought movement which is radically opposed to entropic contemporary economies. xxxxx traces a clear line across eccentric and wide ranging texts under the rubric of life coding which can well be contrasted with the death drive of cynical economy with roots in rationalism and enlightenment thought. Such philosophy, world as machine, informs its own deadly flipside embedded within language and technology. xxxxx totally unpicks this hiroshimic engraving, offering an dandyish alternative by way of deep examination of software and substance. Life coding is primarily active, subsuming deprecated psychogeography in favour of acute wonderland technology, wary of any assumed transparency. Texts such as Endonomadology, a text from celebrated biochemist and chaos theory pioneer Otto E. Roessler, who features heavily throughout this intense volume, make plain the sadistic nature and active legacy of rationalist thought. At the same time, through the science of endophysics, a physics from the inside elaborated here, a delicate theory of the world as interface is proposed. xxxxx is very much concerned with the joyful elaboration of a new real; software-led propositions which are active and constructive in eviscerating contemporary economic culture. xxxxx embeds Perl Routines to Manipulate London, by way of software artist and Mongrel Graham Harwood, a Universal Dovetailer in the Lisp language from AI researcher Bruno Marchal rewriting the universe as code, and self explanatory Pornographic Coding from plagiarist and author Stewart Home and code art guru Florian Cramer. Software is treated as magical, electromystical, contrasting with the tedious GUI desktop applications and user-led drudgery expressed within a vast ghost-authored literature which merely serves to rehearse again and again the demands of industry and economy. Key texts, which well explain the magic and sheer art of programming for the absolute beginner are published here. Software subjugation is made plain within the very title of media theorist Friedrich Kittler's essay Protected Mode, published in this volume. Media, technology and destruction are further elaborated across this work in texts such as War.pl,

Media and Drugs in Pynchon's Second World War, again from Kittler, and Simon Ford's elegant take on J.G Ballard's crashed cars exhibition of 1970, A Psychopathic Hymn. Software and its expansion stand in obvious relation to language. Attacking transparency means examining the prison cell or virus of language; life coding as William Burrough's cutup. And perhaps the most substantial and thorough-going examination is put forward by daring Vienna actionist Oswald Wiener in his Notes on the Concept of the Bio-adaptor which has been thankfully unearthed here. Equally, Olga Goriunova's extensive examination of a new Russian literary trend, the online male literature of udaff.com provides both a reexamination of culture and language, and an example of the diversity of xxxxx; a diversity well reflected in background texts ranging across subjects such as Leibniz' monadology, the ur-crash of supreme flaneur Thomas de Quincey and several rewritings of the forensic model of Jack the Ripper thanks to Stewart Home and Martin Howse. xxxxx liberates software from the machinic, and questions the transparency of language, proposing a new world view, a sheer electromysticism which is well explained with reference to the works of Thomas Pynchon in Friedrich Kittler's essay, translated for the first time into English, which closes xxxxx.
